Richard Keith Weds Former Tucson Girl

Miss Frances Clarke, formerly of Tucson, and Richard C. Keith of Phoenix and Casa Grande, were married Sunday afternoon on the grounds of the Leonard Hampton Brand home here. Mrs. Brand is the mother of the bride.

The ceremony was performed at 4:30 oclock in the afternoon, with Rev. Thurston Rock, a boyhood chum of the bridegroom, officiating.

The bride wore a gown of pink silk net, with a picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of white rose buds. Her sister, Miss Virginia Clarke, maid of honor, wore pink net also, and carried pink and white rose buds.

William P. Keith was best man for his brother.

The bridal pair were feted at a wedding dinner served at the Brand home. The centerpiece of the large buffet table had a massive wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Keith of Casa Grande, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. W. P. Keith of Coolidge.

Mr. Keith has taken his bride to northern Arizona on their honeymoon trip, but has established a home in Casa Grande for her. He is a former student at the Polytechnic College of Engineering in Oakland.
